PORTLAND, THEBSDAY, JULY 9, 1885.

One of the finert hotels in the United States besignst been opened at St. Pagh. It occupies a fine alloation at the corner of Sixth and Robert streets, is seven started high, has a frontage of 225 feet one way and 150 feet another, and is aslied, in honor of the proprietor, a well-known captalist of St. Paul, the Hatel Hyrm. The make opening of this new hotel is not a gratter of so much interest to the people of Hortiani as by the same interest to the people of the transl as the circumstances of ins bielding. This need of a good hotel has been a standing discredit to St. Pank, just as it has been to Portland, for many parts. The materials been taked about without results for a long time prior to February. out results for a long time prior to February, 1888, when Mr. I entils Ryan proposed to build a hotel costing $50,000 if the citizens would make up a bouts of $200,000. A public meaning was called, and $79,000 was piedged in an One man grave $25,000; eight others gave $10,000 each, and from these figures the sub-activities range: downward to $50. The maney was paid in Mr. Ryan attack to his part I the bargain, and the building is now com-listed, three months before the specified time. St. Paul is in a vate of high satisfaction with the hotel and, quite justly so, with her own part in getting it. The opening on the night of the 2d inst. was made a grand social occasion. The business men of St. Paul who have put this enterprise through, realize that the important feature of a city, so far as visitors are concerned, is its houd. The fairest city on earth would seem a dreamy place to a man ill-lodged and ill-fed. Portland is much better off in this respect than formerly, but still we have no hotel in keeping with the general character and size of the city. Somebody ought to take hold of the Villard falluce and put it through to completion. Much of the expensive work is airead; done, and the pice as it now stands could doubt-less be bought cheap. What is now a discredit and a byword should be made the pride of the city. The St. Paul plan ought to be imitated are, but no doubt it is useless and might be is to suppose that the wealthy men of fortland would do anything of a public char

And besides, mere pleasantry importance to the proofs that have been presented regarding the "bogus" character of the hill of our neigh-bor's so-called dispatches. Never has The Ohround, a during its long history, presented any report purporting to have come to it by telegraph which did not come by te egraph. It knows that the tulify and standing of a newspaper depend on the accuracy, trustworthiness and fullness of its news, and therefore it makes its news service answer all these requirements. It pays ten times as much money for its telegraphic service as the News does, and gets twenty times as much report. To gus dispatches requires. A paragraph, printed two years ago hast May, is presented in proof of this said fact. We think, however, that the public find all the columns of The Oregonian sufficiently original. though now and then an expression or statement may not be absolutely so. Very great writers, as Sterne, Moliere, and even Shaks-peare, are known to have "conveyed" very larkely from the works of contemporaries and predecessors. It is solidon, nowadays, that either in ideas or in manner of presinting them there is anything dow. Each age reproduces preceding ages, and indeed each age, brandy re-produces itself. Ideas survive Through ropotition, and if they are general in their nature, and are handled with judgment, their is no an-achrotism in reproducing them. The water therefore for the daily prose usually employs such materials as come to his hand and within

But, as matter of fact, nearly all the editorial interest in This constants is on local topics, of interesting by his long and helty contested can associated to least discussion, and it may be left to the public to any whether it is not original erough.

But there is rare humor in the attempt of the Naces to criticize others on this policy. Not one-half the papers have been original.

Paragraphs and articles clipped from other papers have been presented as editorials every day. The vory same matter, clipped from exchanges and made up in half the contents of its own aditorial columns during the past year have been original. Paragraphs and articles clipped to nother papers have been prosented as aditorials every day. The very same matter, dlipped from exchanges and made hip in solid type under general heads, has often appeared in THE OBEGONIAN simultantionally with its appearance as editorial matter in the News. We could find and parallel innumerable columns of this materials innumerable columns of this materials. parallel innumerable columns of this matter; and if we should do it what a humorist, exsinner, our neighbor would appear in its own better than any it could write, and as nobody the Venice of America ASTORIA, July 7 The state teachers' is stitute commune ed 1 set exeming at the Congregational courch, an was largely attended by teachers and friends o ed on. About sixty teachers arrived on the whose week, and many arrived this afternoon seems to be up to our expectations. The greatest degree of hurmony provails. The critzens and ladies have exceeded the valuest expectations of the teachers, and are untiring in their endeavors to anticipate our most simple wants. The programme of exercises already issued, his been strictly carried out and is evidently of a most pleasing characte. Following is a smoothest of the quartet, The Harvest Home, Mrs. (White is, Miss. F. W. Eat in Messrs. M. Intended and extended applause. Address of welcome by Hom. (W. Fin ton was a rare literary freat. Durming his reintria and bace you to conjecture the remainder, but it must present my to pic in a formal with The letterith and success of our republic dependingly upon how the teachers of our schools perform their part," etc.

Response by Hom. O. F. Paxton., sail in substance. "Finends, I, in behalf of the teachers of Oregon, return thanks to you for the barty and cordial greeting you have extended to us, and to express our appreciation of your kindly spectome. No woman is prepared to take upon herself the duties of maternity until she understands the fundamental principles of her native tongue. No lawyer, preacher, inclurer or teacher should no before an audience until capable of using his power of expression. Every person should have a knowledge of his own vorce, as to its quality, in order to remove difficulties or further perfect excellencies. Mr Roberts is a living mountent to the theory he urges, being in his old age in the full possession of vocal powers and possessed of a worce clear, ringing and far reaching as in middle age. Next followed a vocal solo by first Helma Holman of Salem Miss Holman is a general favorite with institute goers, being always ready to add her efforts to manne interest. It the fitte of this date, there is a report of an plerinew between some gent enem of Ariza cal and Commissioner Atkins. They request ter the reservation of peace the disarmament of the Indians on the sun Carlos reservation?
Mr. Athms offsets this request with the proposition that "the cowboys be disarmed." It would guide us cowhere it he applies the name to those who devote themselves to leads of violence these who devote themselves to leads of violence and highway ribbery, his proposition has, by itself son a force, but none as a rart of the Indian question. The mater of the cowboy is in the hands of the law, and when outrages are committed these who are guilty are supposed to be published by it, and if I remember corpectly, a number of instances have occurred where the despiral to the law been completely discounted as with so the case of the Riskee outrage, where five men were captured and hong in a body by law also the law if wondie received a section. desperation laws been completely dis-armed as puts so the case of the Bishee outrags, where five men were cap-tured and hung in a body by law also the torid and long in a bood by any area the single station frain rol berry, in which the perpendictors were overtaken and hung by the outside of the state of citizens.
